WELCOME TO THE NEW CASHIER.

C. S. Brown, of Granville, one of the county's most popular citizens and business men has been elected cashier of the Bank of Gainesboro, and has entered upon the discharge of his duties at the bank. Mr. Brown is well known throughout this and adjoining counties, and is a man of the highest type of character. As a business man he has few equals, and is a worthy successor to the former cashier of this bank. In fact words can't be found, and space is too limited to express his worth to a community. We are indeed glad to have him with us.

Mr. Brown will move his family here as soon as arrangements for a house can be made.

WHAT OF OUR ENVIRONMENTS?

There are three things that are necessary to the making of the best character, and the richest life. These are heredity, environment, and a right conception of God. A character may exist, and many do exist, without the last named qualification, but he cannot be what he ought to be, neither can he be truly happy without it. Give to a person a favorable heredity, the best possible environments, and a true conception of the one true and living God, and ten to one he will make a character of which the world should be justly proud. Without these there is but little hope. It is just as necessary to work to develop a right environment for our children, as it is to furnish them something to eat and wear. Then, let parents and citizens labour to give to the rising generation such environment as will contribute to the making of right character, and tend to safeguard the best interests of our country.

Let our motto be: "Better churches, better schools, better roads and a better environment."

It is quite commendable to know that several people were present at the church Sunday morning and evening, notwithstanding the very cold weather. I believe that we ought to keep this practice up, and go to church regardless of the cold weather. We can afford to really suffer for Christ's sake, if it is necessary. So come back next Sunday night.

The pastor will preach at Flynn's Lick next Sunday morning at eleven and at Gainesboro Sunday night.

A. R. Gibbons.

A WEEK OF PRAYER.

This week, January 5-11, is to be observed as a time of prayer for the success of national and world-wide prohibition, and ex-Senator W. R. Webb, chairman of the antisaloon league campaign for Tennessee has issued the following proclamation:

Whereas, you have been called upon to join in this great cause of national and world-wide prohibition.

Whereas, you will engage in attempting to do your part, and,

Whereas, we realize that the undertaking in any good and worthy cause cannot be successful without the aid of Divine Providence, now,

Therefore, I, W. R. Webb,

chairman of the organization to carry out this work in Tennessee, do call upon all the people of Tennessee to favor the extermination of alcohol from the world, and from our own state and community. Let us observe the week beginning Monday, Jan. 5, 1920, and engage in prayer frequently and as constantly as possible throughout the week. To this end all preachers of all denominations are requested to make public this message from their pulpits and to direct their congregations as to its proper observance.

In the meantime, I ask all people to regard this as the greatest opportunity of their lives, and I appeal to you to live above sordid and selfish motives, and appreciate properly this great privilege.

WHAT EVERYONE SHOULD KNOW.

The Fourteenth Decennial Census of the United States is on!

Under the immediate direction of Dow E. Slagle, Supervisor of the Fourth census district of Tennessee, census enumerators will call at every dwelling house in this community to secure the information necessary to fill out the questions contained on the printed census schedules.

Questions covering the following points will be asked every person in the United States:

- Sex;
- Color or race.
- Age at last birthday;
- Whether single, married, widowed or divorced;
- Birthplace of person enumerated and birthplaces of father and mother, giving of both country and province of foreign born;
- Occupation, specifying trade or profession, also industry in which employed;
- Whether attending school;
- Whether able to read;
- Whether able to write;
- Whether able to speak English;

Whether home is owned or rented, and if owned whether home is free of encumbrance or is mortgaged;

Persons of foreign birth will be asked questions concerning these additional points:

- Year of immigration to the United States;
- Whether naturalized, and if so the year of naturalization;
- Mother tongue or native language.

Census enumerators also will call at every farm in this community to secure the information necessary to fill out the questions contained on the agriculture schedule.

Each farmer will be asked questions concerning the acreage and value of his farm; whether he owns, rents or partly rents the land he farms; the value of the buildings, machinery and implements belonging to his farm; the quantity of all crops raised on his farm during the year 1919; and many other questions which cover all possible farm operations.

An absolute accurate and complete census vitally concerns the welfare of this community and of every person living in it. The official population for the next ten years will be determined by the census of 1920.

BE READY WITH YOUR ANSWERS WHEN THE CENSUS MAN CALLS AT YOUR HOUSE.
